Brace Up.

Trying to walk with one foot in the grave does not help us to get along. Lift up your head and heart, your hands and your feet, your all, and do what you can, making yourself as useful as possible. Neither bread and raiment, nor even religion, are found in the grave. Fretting about things which cannot be changed except by your own conduct is like finding fault with your cook for giving you bad Coffee for breakfast when the fault is with yourself in providing her with an inferior article to make from, while Genuine Mandbeling Java may be readily obtained at a slight difference in cost.

Keep your temper, and let the bad Coffee be a warning against pro-viding more like it. The best use of past follies and errors is to let them teach us to be more wise now.
